BABY'S HEIGHT

At Birth
24 inches.

Baby's first word

Francis was slow to talk. although he said the usual, "Da da and Ma ma" and went through the period of "All gone", he never really talked much.

Baby's first TOOTH

at three months.

When he was five months old he had three teeth.

When he died he had sixteen teeth.

COLOR OF EYES AND HAIR

Baby's hair was light brown with a "cow lick" on the left side.

His beauty was his eyes. Dark brown was the color and brighter than any I ever saw.

Baby's first STEP

People began to say, "Doesn't your baby walk yet?" But at sixteen months he began and they my troubles began too.

He would run away to grandma's and had to be brought home many a time.

BABY'S FIRST SHORT DRESS

When Francis was three months old he donned short clothes.

His christening dress in which he was baptized May 8, 1913~~4~~ was given him by Helen Hamilton.

How happy he was that day and how proud we were of him!

Baby's first SHOES

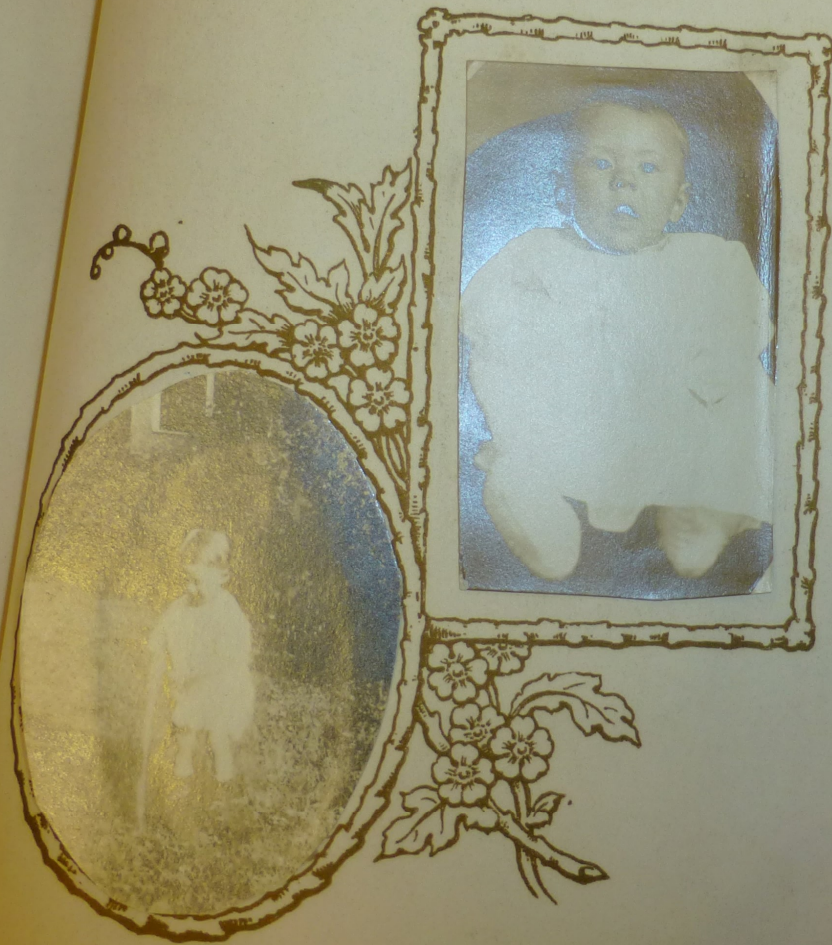

His first real shoes were tiny white ones given to him by Aunt Emma.

The last pair he wore only once with his first little pink trouser suit. He felt his importance that day and how little we realized it was to be his last Sunday with us.

Baby's first OUTING

When Francis was nine months old, we visited in Lancaster.
Here he was the pet of everybody. Every man who went past the house
stopped to speak to him
as he sat in his buggy.

BABYHOOD EVENTS

A little sewing party at Gladys Towseley's. Francis didn't want to have his picture taken.

Francis' Death.

On Wednesday I called in the doctor and he pronounced the case tonsillitis.

The next day we were quarantined for scarlet fever.

He passed away Saturday noon at 12.15.

Friends were kind if it could only have helped.

He was buried at two the next afternoon by Dr. Kitcham. Although the funeral was private many came and stood far off.
